MISDEMEANOR MARIJUANA DIVERSION PROGRAM (MMDP)

Policy Statement. The Harris County District Attorney's Office is committed to public safety, responsible use of taxpayer money, and equal justice for all. Accordingly, this Office is instituting a new policy affecting prosecution of misdemeanor possession of marijuana cases effective March 1, 2017.

Pursuant to this policy, this Office will use its prosecutorial discretion to divert offenders in possession of misdemeanor amounts of marijuana pre-charge.

The goal of this new policy is to ensure that: (1) the limited resources of this Office, local law enforcement, and the Harris County Jail are used responsibly to increase public safety; and (2) individuals who commit the non-violent crime of possessing a misdemeanor amount of marijuana are not stigmatized by a criminal record that limits their employment, education, and housing opportunities.

During the past decade, this Office prosecuted more than 100,000 cases of misdemeanor possession of marijuana at a cost in excess of $200 million dollars. The endeavor has produced no tangible public safety benefit for the people of Harris County, yet has deprived neighborhoods of officers' time that could be spent patrolling neighborhoods, jail beds that could be used for violent criminals, crime lab resources needed for DNA testing, and judicial court time that should be spent bringing serious criminals to justice.

Additionally, a District Attorney has the duty "not to convict, but to see that justice is done<sup>1</sup>," and the important function of trying "to reform and improve the administration of justice<sup>2</sup>." Therefore, it is this Office's responsibility to consider the total impact of arrest and conviction for minor law infractions upon all people, especially when past prosecutions have disproportionately impacted communities of color. Long term, the damage to our workforce, economy and to relations between the people and our criminal justice system is greater than any benefit contemplated by past policy makers.

This Office recognizes that the possession of marijuana is illegal in this State, and that the police, when acting in a constitutional manner, have authority to arrest offenders who break the law. This new policy simply reflects a collaborative effort between the Harris County District Attorney's Office and local law enforcement to direct our efforts at those who commit crimes against people and property. Further, it is a commitment to the greater Houston business and labor communities to keep people in the workforce whenever possible by diverting them around the criminal justice system before they are charged with the crime of misdemeanor possession of marijuana. Accountability for breaking the law will remain an important component of this Office's new policy as all offenders are required to meet eligibility standards and complete a four-hour education program. Otherwise, they will face traditional arrest and charging procedures for their offense.

Finally, this Office recognizes that there are circumstances when the possession of even small amounts of marijuana may threaten the health and welfare of community members, so those offenders who possess marijuana in drug free zones near schools or in correctional facilities will be charged and prosecuted. Additionally, those individuals under court supervision by bond, probation, or deferred adjudication are not eligible for pre-charge diversion under this new policy because they have pre-existing agreements that disallow any law violation.

Mission Statement. Using the lawful discretion available to prosecutors under Texas law, the Harris County District Attorney's Office will use pre-charge diversion to increase available resources to promote public safety through prosecution of crimes against people and property.

Overview. The Misdemeanor Marijuana Diversion Program (MMDP) is a pre-charge diversion program offered by the Harris County District Attorney's Office to Offenders who would otherwise be arrested and charged with possession of misdemeanor marijuana, regardless of criminal history. It is a voluntary program which gives the Offender an opportunity to avoid arrest, jail booking, and the filing of a criminal charge. DOWNLOAD FORM AT DA WEBSITE:

<http://app.dao.hctx.net/OurOffice/MMDP.aspx>.

When an Offender is detained for possession of a misdemeanor amount of marijuana, the Officer will contact the Harris County District Attorney Intake Division to confirm probable cause for the detention. Thereafter, if the Harris County District Attorney's Office determines that the Offender is eligible for the MMDP, the Officer will NOT make a District Attorney Intake Management System (DIMS) entry, but instead will refer the Offender to the MMDP program sponsored by the Harris County District Attorney's Office and into a four-hour "Cognitive Decision Making" class taught by the Harris County Community Corrections & Supervision Department (HCCCSD).

Eligible Offenders who elect to participate in the MMDP program will sign an agreement to sign up and complete the "Cognitive Decision Making" class instead of facing traditional arrest and prosecution. Offenders will have 90 calendar days to complete the MMDP program. If the Offender successfully completes the MMDP program, no criminal charge will be filed against the Offender and there will be no criminal history of the event. If the Offender fails to comply with the MMDP program requirements, a formal criminal charge will be entered into DIMS and an arrest warrant will be drafted for the Offender by the Harris County District Attorney's Office Intake Division.

Eligibility. A person is eligible to participate in the MMDP program if he or she:

- Is an adult, age 17 or older;
- Is detained or arrested for possession of marijuana (Class A & B);
- Possesses sufficient identifying information at the time of detention or arrest according to the intervening law enforcement agency's policy;
- Has no additional criminal charges arising out of the instant detention other than Class C misdemeanor tickets;
- Has no outstanding warrants; or
- Is not on bond, deferred adjudication or probation in Harris County or another jurisdiction for any offense other than a Class C offense.

Not Eligible. A person is not eligible to participate in the MMDP program if he or she:

- Possesses marijuana and sufficient, credible evidence exists which shows them to be a marijuana dealer;

- Possesses a misdemeanor amount of marijuana in a "drug free zone;"
- Possesses a misdemeanor amount of marijuana in a corrections facility; or
- Is currently in the MMDP Program 90-day program period, prior to completion of the program.
